Desert Strike hangs on for a second month by the skin of its teeth as no less than three new entries make up the next three places! Virgin's long awaited Reach For The Skies finally emerges at Number Four while Championship Manager '93 shoots in at Three, but none can compete with what must surely be next month's Number One - the stunning Flashback. Strategy fans have brought in A-Train in a surprisingly high position and Sensible Soccer at last seems to be relinquishing its supremacy as it slips into mid-table for the first time in 10 months. There's no further challenge from the slimy hero Superfrog – he's down this month, though another surprise is the arrival of GG World Class Cricket.

▼ A newy at Number Two with Flashback. Conrad Hart has Desert Strike in his sights and is gunning for that top spot next month.

Well, well, well – still no surprises at the top as Team 17 continue their record breaking (and not tedious in the slightest) Number One stint. Are there still people out there who don't own this game? Apparently so! There is at least a bit more movement elsewhere in the chart this month, with a new entry at Number Two in the form of the excellent Pirates in its oversized and over-the-top packaging. F19 Stealth Fighter is also rocketing towards the top and Lotus 2 looks set for a challenge, entering in the Top 10. Those of you trying to guess the next budget Number One could do worse than stick a few quid on a certain coverdisk demo by the little known Team 17.

▲ If Alien Breed '92 stays at the top for much longer, we're going to run out of screenshots to show you.
